ALWAYS GOD'S PEOPLE
...CARING FOR EACH OTHER

THE 55TH ANNUAL BISHOP'S APPEAL

MAY 2/3, 2009

CHURCH OF ST. PIUS X LOUDONVILLE, N.Y.

SAINT PETER: EXAMPLE FOR ALL

What an extraordinary example we have in the person of Saint Peter. On this Good Shepherd Sunday it is fitting that the first reading draws our attention to the “rock.” The scene depicted in the reading from the Acts of the Apostles contains an example that can be useful to all of us, whether ordained or lay. Notice that after the miracle of the curing of the crippled person, Peter immediately turns everyone’s attention not to himself, but to the Lord Jesus Christ. This is what we are called to do when we experience the presence of God in the struggles of our own Christian journeys. Like Saint Peter, we can let other people know that it is only through the power of Christ within each of us that we are able to embrace the cross and experience the power of the Lord’s resurrection.

ROOTED IN BAPTISM

Today gives us the opportunity to take the time to pray for those who lead us in ordained ministry. In this time of crisis in the Church, our bishops, deacons, and priests need our support as they continue to embrace their vocation to do as Saint Peter did—to point others to the Lord. Since all vocations are rooted in the sacrament of baptism, it is good for us to remember that it was at the moment of our baptism that we became Christ for others. Each of us is called to become more and more like the Good Shepherd as we learn to live out our baptismal call. As we make our way along the Christian journey, we need nourishment and guidance from those appointed to be our shepherds. We need to pray that God will strengthen those who have become weary. On this Good Shepherd Sunday, let us pray especially for the ordained and all those called to point us to the Lord.

PASTORAL CARE NEWS

“Beloved: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are.”

+ In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles Peter, while defending himself before the Sanhedrin teaches that healing and salvation come through Jesus Christ. His proclamation of faith is for our ears as well. Are you searching to know God’s truth? Your deepest longings are only fulfilled in God, revealed through Jesus.

John’s letter speaks of the intimate relationship God wants to have with each of us. We hear that our true identity is found in God our Father. We are His children and called to be like Him. How are you growing in the image of our Servant God?

John’s gospel reveals the compassionate image of Jesus as Shepherd, willing to lay down His life for each one of us. How do you see Jesus shepherding you? Do you resist His care? How do you allow Him to care for you? Does your life reveal His image through your compassion and care?

As you look in the mirror this week pray that you will grow to reveal God’s image of love to our hurting world.

We are His children.
Never abandoned, always loved!

GOOD NEWS: Thank you to Ms. Christine O’Neill Pre-k-3 students who made Stain Glass Window Alleluia Decorations. They were used to celebrate Easter within the hospital rooms of our parishioners and the rooms of our seniors residing in nursing homes.

MINISTERS OF PRAYER: In MAY please pray FOR PRIESTLY & RELIGIOUS VOCATIONS AND THAT ALL WILL EAGERLY PREACH THE GOSPEL THROUGHOUT OUR WORLD. (Papal Intention)

MINISTERS OF PRAYER: The May and June Calendar of the “Apostolic of Prayer for Priests” is on the table by the literature rack in the gathering area outside the Chapel entrance.

“Until you are convinced that prayer is the best use of your time,
you will not find time for PRAYER.”

Fr. Hilary Ottensmeyer, OSM

Calendar Scheduling for 2009-2010

Please start preparing your tentative 2009-2010 Calendar for our upcoming JUNE CALENDAR MEETING ON MONDAY, JUNE 22nd. in Conference B at 6:30 PM sharp. All activities, both on and off the premises must be shown on your tentative calendar. No commitments are to be made for next year until submitted and approved after this meeting. NOTE: Speakers or outside groups who are part of your events must be approved prior to being invited to address your group on or off premises. This will be explained at the meeting.

PLANNING

Please, have an extra copy of your TENTATIVE calendar to be left with Lou Buff at the meeting. ALL parish groups must have a representative at this meeting to discuss not only your dates, but also policies and procedures for use of the Parish facilities. Even if you have been having the same yearly event, take nothing for granted. It still has to be scheduled and approved after the calendar meeting. (This includes fundraisers on and off the premises). With an extremely busy parish it is of utmost importance that everyone is on board with the do's and don'ts.

If there are any questions prior to this meeting, please call Lou Buff at 465-4539.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar: The gospel description of the Good Shepherd is a job description for parenting. Parents must “know” their children and “freely lay down their lives” each day by sacrificing for their children. Even when they don’t want to listen, children must “hear our voice.” Like Jesus, it is our job to “lead” our children to the Father.

ST. PIUS X

Also available this year is a “Tiny-Tots” Program running from 9:00 am until 11:30am for children ages 4 and 5. If there is enough interest in a full day program, it may be extended until 4:00 pm. Registration forms are available in the school and parish offices. To ensure participation in the Summer Program, applications should be completed for each child and returned by May 15, 2009. Applications are available on line at www.stpiusxschool.nycap.rr.com.

What course will you take?

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

This Sunday, May 3rd, the world day of prayer for vocations is celebrated throughout the world. We join our catholic brothers and sisters in all lands to ask the Lord to bless us with an increase in vocations to consecrated and religious life.

The diocesan Vocation Office has a fine website with information and encouragement for anyone who may be considering a vocation to the diocesan priesthood or to religious community life. It also contains information about our present seminarians, about some of the religious communities that minister in our diocese and many ideas for parishes and schools to utilize in helping to encourage our young to consider all the vocation options which God has opened before them. We invite you to visit and take a look at www.AlbanyVocations.org and spend some time seeing all it has to offer. You’ll be glad you did!

We are seeking the names and whereabouts of parishioners who are sick or homebound or are now living in Adult Residences or Nursing Homes. We are unaware of numerous parishioners who are sick, homebound, or living in adult residences or nursing homes because of their changing health conditions. Please let the Pastoral Care Office know if a family member is living in one of these facilities or is no longer able to gather with us at the weekend liturgy. We want to keep in touch. Your help will keep us informed so we can be supportive during their illnesses and declining health. Please call 462-1336 to let us know. Thank You!

A DAY WITH JESUS
