OUTSIDERS AND INSIDERS

Since the Second Vatican Council, Catholics have been led to a deeper awareness of the universal call to holiness rooted in baptism. This call to holiness, that we once thought we alone possessed, we now know to be true of all the baptized. Division among those who have followed the Lord Jesus has been around since the very beginning of Christianity. Jesus' apostles complained to him about others, outside their circle, who were driving out demons in the name of the Lord. Jesus set them straight by telling them that "whoever is not against us is for us" (Mark 9:40). Imagine what the world would be like if we were able to lay down the divisions that exist among us and work together, inspired by God, to bring peace and justice to those who are in need.

UNITY AND THE CALL TO HOLINESS

In John's Gospel, the Lord utters a long final discourse in which he prays that his disciples and all who follow him will become one. It is a sad reality that in a world marked by division, even those who are baptized into Christ Jesus frequently cannot come together in unity to work toward building God's reign. We often expect the leaders of the Christian churches to do the work of Christian unity. In reality, that work begins within our homes, neighborhoods, schools, civic organizations, and places of business. In today's Gospel from Mark, the Lord tells his followers that they should cut away any part of their bodies that leads them into sinfulness. The Church—the Body of Christ—sometimes needs to take a look at itself to see if there is anything that needs to be cut away. Disunity is perhaps one of those things about us that we need to cut off in order to reflect the face of Christ more fully.

*Congratulations to Parishioner
Jim Ercolano*

The St. Pius X Parish Family would like to congratulate Jim Ercolano on the successful completion of his two year Formation for Ministry Program. Jim and his wife Katherine and their two daughters Frances and Emily have been parishioners at St. Pius X for more than 20 years, Frances and Emily both having graduated from our Parish school.

Jim is a member of our choir, a Eucharistic Adorer, a contributor to our newsletter and has been active in many of our ministries throughout the years.

For the past two years Jim has been a participant in our Diocesan Formation for Ministry Program. Many of you may recall the article that Jim wrote about this program for our parish newsletter last winter, outlining his journey through the program and the "joyful, enlightening and spiritually invigorating experience that it had been".

This Sunday, September 27th, Jim and the other 85 participants from around the diocese will be Commissioned for Lay Ministry by Bishop Howard J. Hubbard at a ceremony to be held at Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish in Watervliet, the site of St. Patrick's Church.

We wish to extend not only our congratulations to Jim, but also our gratitude to him for answering the call to discern his God given gifts and his willingness to help the diocese and the Church meet the challenges and needs of all God's people. We wish Jim and his family God's choicest blessings as he begins his commission.

If anyone would like more information on the Formation for Ministry Program you may visit the web site at www.rcda.org/Offices/ministry_formation/.

PASTORAL CARE NEWS

"Would that all the people of the Lord were prophets! Would that the Lord might bestow his spirit on them all!"

+ In the Book of Numbers the Lord shares His spirit with the Hebrew elders so Moses no longer needs to be burdened by the responsibility of caring for God's people. How are you sharing in the Christian mission to care for others? Like Moses, are you willing to let go of some of your leadership as the spirit moves others into service? Are you open to the spirit's urging to humbly take on a leadership role?

In his letter, St. James cautions the community of the consequences of corruption and the misuse of our gifts. He wants all to set their hearts on God's desires. How do you use your gifts? How do your actions stack up? Is it indulgence or generosity?

Mark's gospel reveals the mind of Jesus. Goodness is a sign of Christ at work in others. Tolerance, and acceptance are a must for His disciples and inclusion must be a way of life. Do you have an attitude of exclusivity? Do you let jealousy or envy keep you from being open to others? Are you welcoming to all people?

Whether you are called to lead or follow, you are called. This week take on humility with a welcoming heart.

Bestow Your Spirit on Us, O Lord So We May Do Your Will Even in the Smallest of Ways!

GOOD NEWS: Thank you to all who helped with the Rosary Communion Services at the Atria - Shaker, this summer. Because of you we can provide spiritual support to those seniors struggling with health issues. Your compassionate care mirrors Christ!

Donate Materials to Habitat for Humanity and put your faith into action.

Shelter from rain, wind and sun is a basic human need. Habitat for Humanity provides decent, affordable houses to families in need. Habitat homeowners gain self-respect as they work alongside volunteers to construct their own homes. Since 1976, this ministry has built over 300,000 houses worldwide for more than 1.5 million people.

Establishing partnerships with local and community programs is part of the outreach that St. Pius X Church has been proud of over the years. We would like to make you aware of an opportunity to serve a need in our community while at the same time providing numerous other advantages.

The Habitat ReStore is a home improvement resale store. We take in donations of new and gently used building materials such as cabinets, windows, doors, lighting, appliances, lumber, electrical & plumbing. Items are then sold to the public at our store with all proceeds going to support the important work of Habitat in this community. The Habitat ReStore diverts tons of useable building materials from the landfill while making home improvements much more accessible to people of all income levels. Capital District Habitat for Humanity is looking for donations for their ReStore on 454 No. Pearl St. Albany, NY. Please consider donating items which would qualify for this program.

The benefits of this program include

- * Donations that are tax deductible
- * Pick-ups for your convenience
- * Reduction of materials entering our landfills
- * Assisting Habitat build more homes
