THIRTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

NOVEMBER 1, 2009

VOL. LX NO. 44

THE LAST THINGS

No one really likes to think about the last of anything, particularly the last days of our lives. Yet there is a side to our nature that is drawn to thoughts of the end of life at this time of the year. We're beginning the last month of the church year and the second to last month of the calendar year. Night falls earlier and earlier each day. Leaves fall from the trees, leaving branches that look dead. Skies are gray. It is November.

The Church uses these waning days and darker skies as the season to remind us of the last things. Today's feast, the Solemnity of All Saints, is the centerpiece of three days that point to doctrines we proclaim each time we say the Nicene Creed: "We believe in the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting!" And while the days and our hearts may be dark, the readings today are bright with the light of faith. John's vision in the book of Revelation reveals dazzling angels and white-robed saints gathered in triumph around the throne of God. In the responsorial psalm we sing our longing to see God's face, and in the second reading John writes that we are God's children and will, in fact, see God "as he is" (1 John 3:2). This is our hope. This is God's promise.

THE BLESSED

Then, in the Gospel, we read Jesus' formula for saint-making. "You will be blessed," we are told: blessed if we are poor in spirit, sorrowing, lowly, hungry for holiness, merciful, single-hearted, peacemakers, and persecuted. Matthew's words in this Gospel point us directly back to the first reading. "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb" (Revelation 7:14). Today we celebrate the triumph of those who already gaze on the face of God. Tomorrow we cry out for mercy with those in purgatory, who, like us on earth, still long to see God's face.

PARISH CONVENING Saturday, November 7, 2009:

MEMORIAL MASS

All parishioners are invited to participate in the special "All Souls' Day" Memorial Mass. It will be celebrated on Mon. Nov. 2nd, 2009 at 7:00 PM. At the mass we will read the names of those who have been buried from St. Pius X Church since last October. We have written to family contact persons for each of the deceased, requesting that they participate by placing a flower in the memorial vase in the sanctuary. Come and share in this meaningful celebration of the lives of our loved ones.

PASTORAL CARE NEWS

"...Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted..."

+ In the first reading from Revelations, John's vision reveals a people who have experienced suffering, and persecution and yet have remained faithful to the Lord their God. Appreciative of their salvation they join the angels in worshipping the living God. During times of distress are you found worshipping the Lord or challenging His plan?

John's letter speaks of the faithful follower as a child of God, beloved and chosen to receive graces from the Son. When do you allow yourself to experience God's love and Presence in your life?

Matthew's gospel is familiar to so many. In fact after hearing it over the years, we can easily tune it out. However, the importance of Jesus' keynote address lies in the "be-attitudes" it contains. All are so relevant to gospel living not only on how we are challenged to live but also in how God reveals His love to each of us. How is the Lord revealing His love to you?

Today listen carefully to the gospel. Let Jesus proclaim these words directly from His heart to yours. Later this week make a time for quiet prayer and allow God in the silence to love you as a member of His family.

Beloved saints,
Let us worship our God
In the quiet of our hearts!

GOOD NEWS: Thank you to Sr. Eleanor Guerin RSM and the parish Our Lady of Assumption who made it possible for us to continue our Understanding Grief And Loss Educational Bereavement Support Group. It is a blessing to work collaboratively with you all.

Donate Materials to Habitat for Humanity and put your faith into action.

Shelter from rain, wind and sun is a basic human need. Habitat for Humanity provides decent, affordable houses to families in need. Habitat homeowners gain self-respect as they work alongside volunteers to construct their own homes. Since 1976, this ministry has built over 300,000 houses worldwide for more than 1.5 million people.

Establishing partnerships with local and community programs is part of the outreach that St. Pius X Church has been proud of over the years. We would like to make you aware of an opportunity to serve a need in our community while at the same time providing numerous other advantages.

The Habitat ReStore is a home improvement resale store. We take in donations of new and gently used building materials such as cabinets, windows, doors, lighting, appliances, lumber, electrical & plumbing. Items are then sold to the public at our store with all proceeds going to support the important work of Habitat in this community. The Habitat ReStore diverts tons of useable building materials from the landfill while making home improvements much more accessible to people of all income levels. A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar: The Beatitudes are The Charter for Family Life. Parents constantly address “hunger and thirst, mercy and peacemaking,” coax a “meek” child to speak up and teach the children to be “clean of heart.” When we “mourn” a loved one, our family is there to “comfort” us. Believe Jesus: You are “BLESSED” in living as a family.

We respectfully remind everyone to observe the No parking areas on the parish grounds. These areas provide for everyone’s safety, and in case of emergency they provide access for emergency vehicles. Also, please park only within the lines designated as parking spaces. Areas outside of those lines are for emergency access. Thank you.

Prayer for our Priests

Heavenly Father, we ask that you make of these men you have called, holy, noble and honorable servants. Send your angels to protect their steps, give them courage in the face of the many adversities they must encounter. Shower them in your divine truth and love. Amen.
