THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT
GAUDETE SUNDAY

DECEMBER 14, 2008

VOL. LIX 50

Gaudete Sunday

REJOICE

Isaiah proclaims truly good news to us! God's coming brings not sadness, guilt, fear, wrath, or condemnation. No, God's coming is a source of comfort and joy. Saying it once is not enough, for today's readings are full of joy. Mary's Magnificat substitutes for our psalm today, and our second reading encourages us to rejoice, to give thanks and praise. This is the root meaning of the Greek word for eucharist. We are urged to rejoice and give thanks, because the coming of the Lord brings joy, healing, liberty, release, vindication. It makes the very earth spring up with new life! Good tidings!

Monthly Food Collection

THIS WEEKEND, is the December/Christmas food collection. As we share our blessings with our brothers and sisters, we bring a little "joy to the world" to someone less fortunate. Needed items are hearty soups, stews, chili, spaghetti and ravioli. Also needed are canned fruits and veggies, tuna and mayo, peanut butter and jelly, hot and cold cereals, juice, coffee, tea and hot chocolate, macaroni and cheese, rice, pasta and sauce. Non-food items such as paper products and personal care products are also always appreciated. Thank you for your generosity.

The Third Sunday of Advent is Gaudete Sunday, the 'pink candle' Sunday, the Sunday we light the pink candle on the Advent wreath. Gaudete is the imperative plural form of the Latin verb gaudere (to rejoice). It is a command ordering us to rejoice! In these days of penance and preparation leading up to the feast of our Savior's birth, it reminds us of the joy that is to come, and serves, amid this season of penance, as a kind of 'break' when we recall the hope we have because of the coming of Jesus.

In Advent, we not only celebrate the first coming of our Lord, but eagerly prepare for His Second Coming as well, when the restoration of all things takes place. Too often many of us shudder at the thought of our Lord's coming in glory, as if it were a frightening event—and certainly it will be for those who knowingly rejected Jesus. But for Christians who persevere it will be our great deliverance from the troubles and trials of this world. All the world will bend the knee—some in terror—but as for God's friends, they will bend the knee in joyful adoration as Jesus takes His place as King. The earliest Christians cried 'Maranatha! Come Lord Jesus!' expecting Jesus to come at any moment. So should we—we should long for His return with our lamps trimmed and our souls ready. It is indeed something to celebrate—and prepare for. Advent turns our hearts and minds to this reality.

Should commercialism or the evils of the world get us down we need to look at the Advent wreath with its candles burning down patiently, a new one each week in the spiral they create, going down as we light the pink one this week which fills us with joy that we are getting closer and closer to the coming of the Lord. We can place ourselves on the hillsides with the shepherds in the silent chill with patient anticipation of they-knew-not-what until the angel told them. We can imagine the three wise men silhouetted in the brightness of the Christmas star. And then we can meditate on being in that stable with the smell of straw, animals, and a beautiful Newborn Who is our hope. We can let our burdens drop away at the foot of the manger when He smiles at us. We can receive Him into our arms and hearts as Mary holds Him out to us as the gentle Joseph looks on. This Child is our victory.

REJOICE!

PASTORAL CARE NEWS

“The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me; he has sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor, to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and release to the prisoners, to announce a year of favor from the Lord and a day of vindication by our God.”

+ In the first reading Isaiah proclaims Jesus’ mission of salvation as Messiah. It gives each of us a reason to rejoice on this third Sunday of Advent. Are you open to the favors and graces the Lord has prepared for you this Advent season?

In John’s gospel, John the Baptist bears witness to the gift Jesus is for all. Who is Jesus for you? Does He lighten your burdens? Does He enlighten your mind? Does He bring His saving light to your spiritual struggles? Does your life, like John’s, point to the gift Jesus is for all humanity?

As you continue your Advent journey consider St. Paul’ advice to the Thessalonians.

Rejoice always

Pray without ceasing

Give thanks on every occasion and in every circumstance.

Open your heart to the Spirit

Listen for His prophetic word to guide you

Discern what is good and act on it

Keep evil at a distance

Then, you will open yourself to the graces and favors Jesus brings, most especially the gift of knowing and sharing your life with Him.

Open your heart to Christ By spending time with Him!

GOOD NEWS: Thank you to all who helped with planning and presenting the program “From Grief to Grace: ‘Let God’” for the bereaved in our parish and in the area. Your comforting hearts are a gift to many.

MINISTERS OF PRAYER: In DECEMBER please pray THAT AS WE PREPARE FOR CHRIST’S BIRTH WE MAY COURAGEOUSLY PROMOTE THE CULTURE OF LIFE IN ALL OUR MINISTRIES.

Become a Minister of Prayer!

Our Women’s Scripture Study/Faith Sharing Group will meet this Wednesday December 17th, 2008. Our focus will be “The Parables”. Please read Matthew 21:28-32; Luke 10:25-37. If you are interested in joining us on Wednesdays from 10 to 11:30 AM in Conference Room B, please call the Pastoral Care Office at 462-1336.

At the Dominican Retreat & Conference Center:

“Breakfast with Advent Saints: St. Wenceslas” This Presentation is last of three and it will be held Tuesday December 16th, 2008 from 10 to 11:30 AM. Presenter: Sr. Barbara Ebner, OP Cost: $15.

A New Year’s Evening of Reflection will be held Wednesday December 31st, 2008 at 7:30 PM. Concludes at 12:30 AM. Cost: $25.

Caregiver Support Group - 1st and 3rd Thursdays of the month from 2:30 to 3:30 PM at the Marjorie Doyle Rockwell Center MDRC. RSVP by calling 438-4164.

The Holy Spirit does not always move your desire for action, but he does always enlighten your reason. Hence, in order to practice virtue, do not wait until you feel like it, for your reason and intellect are sufficient.

Are You Caring for Someone over 60?

Catholic Charities Caregivers Support Services invites you to attend an open discussion about Elder Caregiving sponsored by the Albany County Department of Aging et al. A light meal is provided during the gathering at these sites:

2nd Wed. Christ the King Church (Guilderland) 6 to 7:15 PM

Remember to Care For Yourself

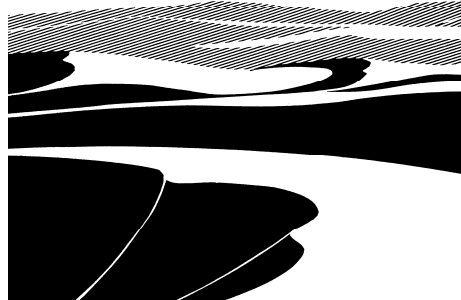

While Caring for a Loved One!

Please call the Pastoral Care Office:

If you or a loved one were unable to join us for last Sunday’s Anointing of the Sick and wish to receive the Sacrament.

If you or a loved one is unable to attend weekly Sunday liturgy because of the severity of continuing illness. We can work out a schedule for you to receive communion at your home. Please call Jeanne Pitkin at 462-1336 to arrange to receive the Anointing of the Sick or Communion at your home.

I am a voice

in the desert

Be Still and Know that I am God

(Psalm 46, 11) ...

Time spent in dialogue with the Lord is never time lost” (Pope John Paul II, Homily, October 24, 1993). Time spent with Christ is never lost, but is time best spent, and in a sense, the greatest act of charity we can offer all the souls that have been entrusted to us. Come join us for Eucharistic Adoration every Friday after the 9:00 a.m. mass up through closing prayer at 7:00 p.m. All our welcome. For more information about how to become a weekly or substitute adorer, contact Peter Ranalli at 482 - 9087 or Margaret Purcell at 453 - 9302.

Reminder about Parking: As the winter season begins we would like to remind everyone of the importance of following all parking regulations in the Church and School parking lots. It is imperative that entrances are not blocked and that cars are parked only in those areas which are proper parking spaces. Thank you for your cooperation.

Giving Tree Dates

The season of giving is upon us. In keeping with the tradition of past years, we have our “Giving Tree” here in church. Please select a tag or two and return the wrapped item with the tag on the outside, by December 14th. Many organizations assisting needy families benefit from the generosity of St. Pius X Parish Families. We wish to thank you in advance for your support of this wonderful ministry. It is only through your kindness that many will ever know what it is to know the joys of a Christmas morning or the warmth of a holiday meal.

EACH ONE—REACH ONE

As you write your Christmas Cards this year, please consider sending one to the following address so that it will be received by an American soldier who will be hospitalized for the upcoming holidays. They’ve done so much for all of us and this will take so little of our time and effort. Thank You! for all your prayers and phone cards and “Dear Soldier” letters. Soon I will receive pictures of the sneaker distribution that took place at the start of this school year. I will share these with all you Guadian Angels by leaving them on the sharing table outside the chapel. Please continue to pray for the 27th Inf. Brigade. As things stand now, they are due home in January! Have a blessed Christmas! Carol Daly @ 867-4218 or email peacebu14@yahoo.com.

The address is:

Reconciliation Service

The Catholic Parishes in the Town of Colonie invite you to an Advent Reconciliation Service

Advent is a very special time during which Christians prepare to joyfully celebrate the birth of Jesus, God's Son, in Bethlehem and to hopefully anticipate his coming again. Catholics can give no greater gift to themselves in preparing for Christmas than by celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation (confession). This year, we are pleased to offer the following opportunities for Reconciliation in the Town of Colonie during Advent:

Two remaining evening Advent Reconciliation Services at 7:00 p.m. and one daytime Advent Reconciliation Service 11:00 a.m. are scheduled for the following parishes:

7:00 p.m.

December 15 St. Clare's Church, Colonie

December 16 Our Lady of the Assumption, Latham

11:00 a.m.

December 16 St. Francis de Sales, Loudonville

Also, the 6 Catholic parishes in the Town of Colonie will offer the Sacrament of Reconciliation on the same night, Monday, December 22 from 7:00 – 9:00 p.m. This is an adaptation of a highly successful program called "We'll Leave the Light On" held in the Archdiocese of Washington, DC. On this evening, a priest will be available for individual confessions. Those who wish will be welcome to stop in to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It will be a great opportunity for a few quiet moments of prayer, grace and mercy amid the hectic final days before Christmas!

Messiah

Dec. 21, 3:00 p.m.

Union College Memorial Chapel

Handel's Messiah performed by Octavo Singers. Tickets available at the door, Adults: $18; 60 yrs. and older $15; Students $8.

We are seeking the names and whereabouts of parishioners who are sick, homebound or in other residences. We are unaware of numerous parishioners who are sick, homebound, or living in adult residences or nursing homes because of their changing health conditions. Please let the Pastoral Care Office know if a family member is living in one of these facilities or is no longer able to gather with us at the weekend liturgy. We want to keep in touch. Your help will keep us informed so we can be supportive during their illnesses and declining health. Please call 462-1336 to let us know. Thank You!
